

John Michael De Marco

THE INTENTIONAL UNIVERSE

About John De Marco

John is a creative synergist with a unique blend of coaching, consultation, facilitation and writing strengths, partnering with leaders for more than a decade. A newspaper and magazine journalist during the 1990s, John evolved his passion for eliciting critical thinking through writing into a second career developing leaders in the non-profit and business spheres. His background includes fields as diverse as wireless, health care, financial services, retail and church ministry.

As founder and principal of The Intentional Universe (www.johnmichaeldemarco.com), John works with leaders at every level and fully trusts that you, the client, possess everything you need to find and implement a solution. John feels privileged to help you and share ideas, tools and resources; but knows beyond the shadow of a doubt that you are fully capable.

John's specific executive coaching approach is Assess, Collaborate, Execute (ACE): Partnering with clients to assess their desire for coaching and specific goals; collaborating with clients in a series of 1x1 coaching sessions, intended for dialogue that helps clients generate new insights and impactful action steps; and execution of key goals the client and John co-discover during the coaching sessions, as well as measuring the overall impact of the coaching engagement.

John's Education and Certifications:

- Graduate-Level Certificate in Executive & Professional Coaching, The University of Texas at Dallas
- Master of Divinity, Asbury Theological Seminary
- Bachelor of Communications, Florida State University
- Professional Certified Coach (PCC), International Coach Federation (ICF)
- Certified Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) Practitioner
- Certified Professional in Human Resources (PHR)
- Certified Strengths Performance Coach, The Gallup Organization
- Certified Facilitator, Development Dimensions International (DDI)

A resident of Franklin, Tenn., and Boca Raton, Fla., John is the author of four books: Assess, Collaborate, Execute: ACE Your Way Through Life, which is an intentional framework for professional and personal success and satisfaction; the novels Narcissus Blink and The Wine Steward's Lover; and the memoir Chased by the Wind: A Youth's Literary Search for God.
